The Epoch, a new journal of opinion and distussion, jost started at New York, has invited statements from men graminent in finance as to the best way of reducing the treasury surplus. John Jay Knox, for many pears the well-known comptroller of the currency, argues at length that a simple and effective way to reach the result would be to provide for the refunding of the 4 per cent, bonds, amounting to $738, 500,000, into 23/ per cents in all respects pre-234 per cents in all respects preclasely like the fours, except in the rate of inter-est, the government offering to the holders of the fours the inducement to exchange the old bonds for the new by paying in advance the dif-ference in interest between 24 per cent and 4 per cent, as calculated by the actuary of the treasury. And upon a calculation furnished by E. B. Filliott, government actuary, Mr. Knox shows that the amount to be paid to the holders Knox argues, "would reduce the surplus as rapidly 28 the state of the treasury will war rapidly as the state of the treasury will war-rant, and give ample time for both parties to mature a bill for a just and permanent reduc-tion of the customs dulier."

Such a plan, however, would hardly be ac-cepted by the country. It is not easy of popu-lar comprehension, and will appear to the peo-ple to be calculated solely with regard to the interest of the bondholder. Besides, large num-bers of our neonla desira that a proper parting time to internal improvements.

James Seligman and Charles M. Fry answer

the inquiry of the Epoc't in a way that will much better satisfy the average judgment of the country. Mr. Seligman says: "I would reduce country. Mr. Seligman says: "I would reduce the tariff tax in many instances, particularly on those articles that are regarded as 'necessities,' to such an extent that our surplus would be less than half the amount that we have been receiving in past years. I should then devote my sole attentions are the surplus and the surplus are the surplus and the surplus are the surplus ar attention to expending indicionaly whatever surplus there may still occur in making internal improvements. There is probably no government in the world that has done so little in the time that we should do something to secure our national safety, as it is obvious that our navy our forts, our harbors and some of our fivers bare been too long neglected. By thus expend-ing the surplus on these internal improvements there is no doubt that the entire country will be vastly and permanently benefited." And Mr. Fry "The vast amount of money now lying in is idle money that should be put to some t stance, we certainly need a first-class navy and letenses for the harbors. Not because there is any prospect of a war, but because it is a na tional necessity, so many important cities in the country being exposed. I think a very large amount of money might be advantageously oxpended in improving the Mississippiriver, which s the great highway of the country, as well as

These are broad and sound views: and, com-These are broad and sound viewe; and, coming from men eminent in finance in New York, they show that all opinion at the metropolis is not in favor of what the press of that city calls the "New York idea." Mr. Seligman's viewe are almost a ropetition of those stated by Senator Sherman of Ohio in his noted letter read at the recent dinner in New York in honor of Lincoin's birthday. Sherman argued, in substance, that sound policy would recommend the repeat of all taxes that do not tend to encourage and foster domestic product on, prosecution of a proper system of coast defenses and internal improvements, enlargement of the navy and extension of foreign commerce, particularly with the states of South America.

This has pleased the "working demokrant" of the country nightly; they find in it a policy sharply in cou-tract with that pursued by effection, and by all this class Hill is looked to as the man to lead the President Cleveland since his election has more tically been: "I am under no obligations to party or anybedy, except, periaps, the mag-wumps. I am better than my party. The po-sition of Gay. Hill has been and is: "I awa everything to my party and will do all that I properly may to promote its interests and give effect to its principles." This very clearly it-lustrates the disestistaction of a large number of democrats with the Cleveland administration.

ERROR DIES HARD.

The Ohio legislature last month passed a bill repealing the black laws and the statute providing for separate schools for colored children. That Obto, the third state in the Union in population, and not second to any in popular intelligence, should keep the black have on her skilde book so long after the death of slavery is proof of the remarkable tenacity of life which character Towns had their negro suburb, and in the put lie schools black boys were seated by themselves and white offenders were obliged to sit with them: Lycenme, established to promote popu-lar knowledge, debated whether black people lecture course and generally decided it in the negative. In Massachusetts, sixty years ago, the only towns where a decent colored man had any peace was where the Quakers were parsons antislavery meetings were mobbed frequently in the rural districts of New England. Fred write, but rose to fame first by the natural ele quence he exhibited when, at a meeting called to consider the case of the fugitive slave Lati-mer, he described him as "clinging to the base of Bunker Hill monument, and shricking in-vain for succor to the God of Liberty upon the free soil of Massachusetts?" this color-phobia at the North is shown by the fact that McClellan, Patterson, Halleck, Hooker, Stone and Minsfield expelled fugilities slayes from our camps during the first year of the war that Lincoln's proclamation was well-comed by the people chiefly because it was a war measure; that the enlisting of colored to the line portant appropriation bills at a war measure; that the enlisting of colored to the line people of the session, thus depriving the sensities of the time present and the line processor. a war measure; that the eclisting of colored troops did not take place built the war had raged more than two years; that colored suffrage was but coldly received by the republicans after the war, notil Thad Stevens whipp if the party into it by the specious argument that it was necessary to secure its political grip upon the white house. Even to-day color-phobia is strong in all the great cities and large towns of the East. It is as strong, if not stronger, to-day in many states that long ago wiped out their black laws, as it is in Ohio that has but just expunged them from the etatute book. The color prejudice is not the only illustration of the obstina 3 with which conservative proju-dices resist the impact of advanced thought. Up to 1843 the state of Rhode Island was with-out a constitution. It retained the legislative representation fixed by its charter of 1613. which restricted the suffringe to land owners and to their e.dest sons, and became as much a government of rotten boroughs as England was before the passago of the reform bill of 1832, when Lord John Rüssell said that "a ruined mound; sent two representatives to par-liament; a park where no houses were to be seen sent two, while Manchester, Leede, Bir-mingham and some thirty-nine large and pros-perous towns had no representation." In 1840 Providence, with 20,000 inhabitants, had but four representatives, while Newbort, with le four representatives, while Newport, with less than 10,000, had is. Towns having altogether 29,000 people and about 3000 voters elected thirty-eight representatives, while but thirty-four were chosen by towns having nearly 80,000 people and nearly 6000 voters. The disfranchised appealed in value for years to the assembly to abrogate this abuse, but it was not null 1848 this charter with its feedal land system of outling and the recognition to the second the second that the second that the second the second that the second t suffrage and its recognition of the right of primogeniture was replaced by the constitution; and in the meantime the excitement on the subject had resolted in the resolutionary attempt, known as the "Dorr rebellion," to set up a new government. The situation for a time was almost identical with what took place in Kansas in 1884-56, in Maine in 1880, and in Louisiaus in 1886.

The recent attempt to revive the old knownothing spirit and organizations in California and Chicago is another illustration of how slowly error, prejudice and bigotry die out in the land. In 1854 the know-nothing movement swept Massachusetts like a whirlwind, electing Gardner to the governorship by a tremendous majority. It sent Henry Wilson to the United States senate, who was himself a member of a know-nothing lodge, as was also Senator Ed-munds, then about starting on his political career. It was a most absard movement for the constitution of the United States and of most of the three were an absolute bar to the accomplishment of any anti-Catholic or anti-foreign proscriptive legislation. It was a secret order, but its foly was open enough, so that the able men in the order quickly left it and being left only to the conduct of the fools and fanatics it tumbled into rain almost as soon as it was built. It lived just long enough to give the democratic party a hold on the affections and allegiance of the Catholic and foreign vote, and on this account was a most disastro blander. The democrats turned this knownothing projudies to good account in 1856 by circulating the campaign lie that Fremont wis a Roman Catholic, and it did much to keep Pennsylvania from the republicans in that campaign. It would be death to be account to the campaign. paign. It would be death to any party to revive it to-day, and yet the fact that it has recently heen attempted in San Francisco and Chicago shows how stabbornly prejudices cling to life. Error may be wounded so severely as to writte in pain, but it takes a long, a very long time for her to absolutely die among her worshipers.

Ex-Gov. Abbett of New Jersey, who was de-feated for the United States senate by the coali-tion of "railroad ring" republicans and demo-crats, suffered for his views on the subject of cals, suffered for his views on two output taxation of corporations as expressed in his message when governor of his state. There are corporations in New Jersey which hold property enjoying to a certain degree immunity from taxation under charters granted by previous legislatures. The courts have held that these charters manner to which contents are the court of the amount to valid contracts, and that the state has surrendered its sovereign right over taxation. dov. Abbett argued that although the legislature could not violate the alleged contracts it could resume its rights of taxation on compensating the corporations, the amounts of compensation to be fixed by a court and jury, as is done in cases where real estate is taken for public uses. He favored extinguishing these old mistakes of previous legislatures in this way, and he believed that the same course could be taken with respect to municipal taxation of property hithorite exempt; and he proposed a constitutional amondment making it impossible homeofunds. amendment making it impossible hereafter for the legislature to sell or surrander the state's swereign rights. The corporations neser for gare Abbett for these views, and hence, though an able lawyer and an ardent democrat, he was beaten for the United States senate by the state railroad "ring."

President Claveland the other day pardonel one Hopkins, sent to the Atbany, N. Y., penitentiary for dounterfelling. Counterfelling ought to be an uppardonable offense. It is the most deliberate, painstaking, intelligent and dangerous crime against property known to the law. The mischtef resulting from it is widespread, and the final loss is preity sure to fall upon those lenst jubic to bear it; the ignorant and illigente page above property. and illiterate poor, who are not only more easily imposed upon by counterfelt coin and currency out are not as keen to remember and identify these who cheat them, and thereby secure prompt arrest and conviction as the intelligent and prosperous business classes. Thousands of dollars of counterfeit currency and coin have been out off upon poor European emigrants, thiterate blacks at the South, and at one time upon even the more cautions Chinamen. It seems a crime against public policy and comore cial security to pardon a counterfeiter, and the president as an old lawyer is inexcusable to his clemency.

If the American minister to England makes an address before a legal society in that country or attracts one of the periodical dinners given by the ford may one? London, he is instantly set down as a such and an inepficiable today.—Boston Herald,

No; the American minister is not a snob and an insufferable toady when he makes an address an incufferable toady when he makes an address before a legal society or attends the lord mayor of London's dimer, but when he makes a public address on the occasion of the 21st bitthday of the son of the prince of Wales and tells the son that if he wishes to follow the light of truth and elatesmanship he has only to imitate his illustrious father, then the American minister has become a snob and an insuferable toady; and that is just what the present American minister did on the occasion referred to.

The failure of the Irish jury to convict John Dillon and his associates will probably force the Salishury government to ask for some new form of coretre legislation, since Irish juriss will no more convict a man accessed of agratian agita-tion than a jury in South Carolina will convict a democrat of a violation of the federal election law. The Irieh land league under the English form of government is safe from suppression. In Russia, or under Bismarck, the league could be extinguished; but until England relepses into a despotism, Irish agracian agitators are safe to work their will after the methods of Mr.

The failure of the river and harbor bill is the compared with the river and harbor bill, which conspared with the river and harbor bill, which includes amunal appropriations of pressing importance. While we ought in peace to prepare for war; while our seacost is absolutely defenseless, neverthe east the prospect of any war with a power strong enough to take advantage of our weakness is; not a matter at present of ressonable apprehenion. But in the matter of the river and harbor bill the consequences are most vexatious and injurious to the public welfare.

Four days before congress adjourned Sena-tor Edmunds vigorously denounced the dilatory action of the house, which thrust upon the senate all the important appropriation bills at the just minute of the ession, thus depriving the senate of the time necessary to consider these important measures, and depriving the president of the ten days to which he is reason-ably entitled for their examination and lospec-tion. This Mr. Edmunds declared to be a gross violation of multic days and of the split, of the violation of public duty and of the spirit of the constitution. He said the senate was forced to take these measures from the house without even knowing their contents; without any opperfunity to discuss, amend, oppose or reject them; and he closed by saying if the senate did consent to do so the president would be justified in refusing to sign them under these cir-cumstances. We quote:

cumstances. We quote:

I think that the chief magistrate will feel it to be bis high and patriotic duty, if congress shall not have made some provision on the subject, to call the new congress for that purp as alone, because it is a most important interest and a most important purpose, which affects not only the pecuniary interests and the personal liberty and happiness of a large part of the people, but affects the honor of the United States and is despity. the United States and its dignity.

This was very properly and, and it applied specially, as no doubt it was meant, to Randall, chairman of the house appear atton committee. I puring the late weeks During the late weeks of the recent session he repeatedly absented himself from the conference committee, with the clearly deliberate intention of preventing proper action upon the appropriations. His conduct, which has excited the warmly-expressed indignation of the decent men of both parties in congress, is not explainable or any worthy grounds. The senate fairly said that it was not justified under the constitution in throwing all discretion to the winds and passing legislation without examination; that the president was not justified in signing bills without time for examination; that an extra seasion was better than this utter evasion and contempt of the constitutional duty of the president and the senate, forced upon them by the negligance of the house and the action of fir. Randall.

Senatore Beck and Cockrell strongly supported repeatedly absented himself from the conference scuton of Mr. Hangall.

Senators Beek and Cockrell strongly supported Mr. Edmunds in his position that the senate and the president should insist upon reasonable time to consider billis. Practically Mr. Rendail bemeasures just as they come from the house.

In the matter of the pocket reto of the river and harhor bill, the claim that the president had not time to examine the measure is not sound. While it is true that he did not have for consideration of this bill the tendars contemplated by the constitution is the sum of the s constitution, it is equally true that so much time constitution, it is equally true that so much time was not necessary in this casa. Full information as to every item in the bill was at command and in the three days the bill was before him for his signature, ha, had more than enough time to become familiar with it. The president does to become familiar with it. The president does not even claim that the time was too brief. He says plainly that in his opinion there was as much money on hand as can profitably be expended duting the coming summer; that congress has grown extravagant in the matter of appropriations for the improvement of rivers and harbors, and that for these and other reasons he did not see the bill. sons he did not sign the bill. He makes no ples on the ground of the lack of time.

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

W. M. Ladd Elected Director without Opposition-Fred Daly Elected Clerk by Fifty Plurality.

Tree Daly Election Clerk by Fifty Firality.

Tre annual election of school district No. 1 was held yesterday. As there was no opposition to W. M. Ladd for director, interest was confined to the contest for the clerkship, which was warm. Each candidate for clerk had a large number of friends at work and there were plenty of carriages to take ladies to the poils. The best of order prevailed. The total number of votes polled was 113, of which hir. Ladd received 97. Following is the vote:

MANY FUNDS 39 SUBSCRIBE TO.—The moneyed men of Portland are going to have plenty of opportunity to "subscribe" to funds this year. Though 1887 is yet young, there has already come a demand for four goodstard funds which must be met. The first is for money to carry on the immigration beard; the second, to provide appliances for the speedler dredging of St. Helens bax, and the third for enternalping the pioness at their annual reunion, which takes place in this city. About $19,000 will be needed. Yesterday an informal meeting of men interested in chipping was held, and it was decided to begin a canvass at an early date for funds to supply the appliances which Mayor Gates asked for. After these funds are raised, the Fourth of July committee will be around, and then will come a demand for money to part of shurting St. Helens bar. The Home, the hospitals, the Y. M. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. We have always will us, while the group of church hairs and concerts and zealous people selling tlokets for them never fall. So the generous men of Portland who have grown accustomed to giving for public enterprises and charity with as much regularity as paring laxes need have no fear that they will be neglected by canvassing committees from this time up to Christmas; and the committees need have no fear that petitions for any worthy object will be refused.

CALT. LAMSON RECOGNIZED.—In Admiral D. D. Porter's "Naval History of the Civil War," recently published, he pays the following tribute to Capt R. B. Lamson, of this city: "During the demonstrations made by the sheary on this occasion (the sleep of the service, among them Lieut, Lamson and the indomitable Gushing, both brave, energetic men.—Lamson with the capacity of one older and more experienced and Cashing with a dash and vigor neare exceeded. Lamson especially distinguished himself by planning, and with the cooperation of troops under Brigadier-General Getty, effecting the capture of five gans and 130 men at Hill's point."

An Early Start for the Coming Bassex.—The Portlevide to Organise this West—The New Rules.

Next Thursday, evening the Portlad Baseball elubiwill bold a meeting for the purpose of ceorganizing for the season of 1857. The personnel of the nine will be nearly the same as hast year. Connoily and Thinks as will form one battery, and Mebus and Frank Christy the other. Christy is said, to be an excellent catcher. He is now at Alkail, but will be here in a few days. Buchtel will play at short, Glendenning at second, Lee at third and Coulter in the field. Other positions have not yet been assigned.

As yet no stens have been taken to reorganize the Blars, though there is scarcely a doubt they will have a playing nine. It looks as it contexts early in the stone was probably under the old name. BATTALION DRILL -E, G and X companies BATTALION DRILL.—E, G and X companies assembled at the Pavilion last evening at 8 o'clock for batalion drill. E company terned out nineteen men, under command of Capt. Southworth; G company, forty-three men, under command of Capt. Beebe. Col. Mertil drilled the batalion. Marked improvement was noticeable in the manuvers, especially in the movements at doube time and breaking into companies from line. A good number of specialors were present. The drill was undomitedly the most severe battalion drill ever given in the city, but the meh stood it excellently well and are evidently of the kind that make soldiers.

MURAN'S SECOND TRIAL.—The second trial of Dan Moran for the thurder of Frederick Kalasuha will be commenced to-day in Judge Stearms's court. In the first instance the authorities were willing to allow Moran to go seet free in case he would testify against Kelly. On account of the dire distress over the effect his sistement might have Moran ran away. He was recaptured, much to his own disgust, and tied and convicted of murder in the first degree. If Moran since had his own way the authorities would not again have had a chance to place his life and liberty in jeopaidy, but matters did not work to suit Moran, so he again has to trust his case to the mercy of a ury.

An Inductment Datem Sunday.—To-day Judge Stearns will pass upon the case of Ed difference what the date of the making of it was.

A MISSING TWENTE.—Abe Coben was on trial before n jury yesterday in Justice Tuttle's court on a charge of istealing a twenty-dollar piece Wednesday last from a boy named George Hanton. The inter took two double eagles not of a bureau drawer in his parent's house at C and Fourth streets and proceeded to amuse himself by throwing them around. He events till lost one. Conen got non of it, and as the sin emediges, threw it up and batted it as he would a baseball. This was the last seen of the coin.

Case Transpreare.—Vesterday the suit of ball. This was the last soen of the coin.

Case Transferred,—Yesterday the suit of the Oregon and Washington Mortgage Savings bank vs. Sheriff Thomas A. Jordan was transferred from department No. 2 state circuit court to department No. 1. In 1884 the bank had Sheriff Jordan enjoined from collecting their taxes; and the case has been at issue ever since. Judge Stearns was county judge at the time the assessment against the bank was made, and as a member of the board of equalization had a hand in it. For this reason he preferred that Judge Shattuck try the case.

HELD ON Two Charless,—Tom Sing, alias

Judge Shattuck try the case.

Held on Two Charges.—Tom Sing, alias Ah Lum, alias Buthlo, was arraigned in the police court yesterday on two charges—one of burglary and another of lacrony in breaking into Jacobs Bres', store. The accused pleaded not guilty and had an examination, resulting in bis bring held to answer before the grand jury, with bonds fixed at $500 in each case. Lum made three different attempts to effect his escape, but in each was folied. He is an experienced their and good general siliround criminal. He has served two terms in the penitentiary.

Introvement.—Since E. W. Moore, the portrait artist, left the photo business and has taken bis new studio at No. 1271/2 First street, he has given his whole time to large portrait work in crayon, pastel and oil colors, which shows a great improvement. Mr. Moore does a great map portraits for the trade. He has a few pulpils in crayon, and teaches from casts, that studies or from life.

As of le O'Regan was pesterday granted a divorce of provide and crust treatment. They were married in Fortiand in 1822. The condition of John Gallagher, who cut his threat at St. Vincent's hospital hast Wednesday, was very low lest night. He was not expected to live till daylight.

MARINE ENGINEERS ASSOCIATION.—At the inst meeting of this association (No. 11), the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Precident, George Fuller; vice-president, Elias Vickens; general secretary, J. W. Collyer; Iceasurer, Mike O. Neir; chaplaio, W. Juckson conductor, P. H. Crim; doorkeeper, E. Driscoll, Jacob Mutthop and W. Lewis.

UKPROVOKED ASSAULT, -Sunday night about UNERGYOKED ASSALLT.—Sunday night about 11 o'clock J. M. Beatty, a fellow who recently posed in the police court as a vagrant, assaulted Wallace, a waiter, and a roung woman who was with hun, at First and Columbia streets. The assault was made without provocation, Beatty first insulting the parties. Beatty when in for vagrancy alleged he was a moulder by rade.

LADIES' DAY.—Ladies desirous of buying strictly first-class jeweiry at their own prices should attend the nuction sale of the New York Jeweiry Company, 197 First street. This sale was commenced on Saturday last and will be continued daily this week at 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. Special accommodations for the dadies afternoons and evenings.

Special accommodations for the ladies after-noons and evenings.

An Unworthy Veteran.—Mike Dorae, who recently has lisen traveling on his reputation as recently has been traveling on his reputation as a Grand Army man, was arrested yesterday for drunkenness. Dorain, besides his badge, has been peddling his discharge around with him in a name. Police officers in the lower end of town say be has got to be an intolerable nuisance.

Revival Services.—A large audience gathered in the labernacle to the union revival service.

ored in the laberhacie to the thiost review as yearnen of great power was preached by Rev. Thomas Boyd on the outputting of the spirit at Pentecost. Much interest was manifested; the meeting was hopeful, Praching by Rev. Warren H. Landon this evening.

THE STAGE.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—A most enthusins the addience was present at the first appearance of the Neille Boyd company last evening in the melodiana "Passion's Slave." The play itself barling been presented by John A. Slevens, the author, easen before last, its fundithar to all as one of those highly spiced, sensational creations, but of eliminates the situations and somewhat stratuded and the strength of the situations and somewhat the unstituted and control through the set of comedy, there is the case of the situation of the pledoramatic features.

As presented last genging the play received most els up the gloon of the shelodramatic teatures.

As presented tast evening the bay received nost of rective treatment at the hands of the very capable company producing it. Miss Neille Boyd as Clotilde de Join gave a very artistic and meritoricus personation of a dialect part. As the wronged and injured girl, erring through love for a faithtest sans, she won the sympathy of her andience by the idelity of her personation. Theo, Roberts as the tero, Manuel Delfoe, furnished a faithful rendition of a trying role. He was particularly effective the conditions of a trying role. He was particularly effective ecognition seeve in the third act, and throughout his work was marked by an earnestness and concentions effort that bespeak the palantaking artist. We remember this gentleman's drat upcarance on the Bain Francisco stage a few rears ago and note with congratulations his rapid strides towards success. Air. J. J. Wallace's dolight was a very devere plece of comedy, as was also the Shortsloves of Mr. F. S. Hatch, and their scenes together were most groud, by Miss Carol Crouse, Maine Brisco, by Miss Geornie Haynes, and the remainder of the good of the plantaking artists of the plantaking artists of the plantaking artists detected and the remainder of the service of the delta of the plantaking artists detween acts. "Pass of the Passach Control Haynes, and the remainder of the cast were all that could be existed. The play travel mounted and went smoothly and without any valus between acts.
